GOOD HEALTH

1. DO SPORTS SHORTEN LIFE?

2. WHAT'S NEW IN RURAL HEALTH?

3. WHAT ARE TONSILS FOR?

© 1950 HEALTH INFORMATION FOUNDATION

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. Strenuous exercise, especially after 40, may shorten life. On the other hand, one study indicates that college athletes live slightly longer lives than preferred risk life insurance policyholders. Football players and those who had letters in two or more sports scored highest in longevity. Another study, however, showed that holders of high scholastic honors lived longer than the athletes.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. Rural communities that need doctors are attracting young physicians by building clinics that contain the tools modern doctors need to practice efficiently. These tools, like X-ray, are too expensive for the average young doctor to buy and so he settles in larger cities where they are available to him in hospitals. Now small towns are "baiting doctor traps" by furnishing the doctor with modern medical equipment.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. No one is certain what use tonsils may have but one theory is that when they become infected in the first three years of life they tend to help the individual build resistance against later infection—a kind of natural protection. In most cases this protection is only temporary. Doctors usually advise removal of the tonsils when there are repeated attacks of sore throat, when tonsils and adenoids cause mouth-breathing, or there is strong suspicion that they are harboring infection.

Starlet Explains Make-Up Magic

Applying her favorite cake with a brush, Miss Roman will next brush on powder, then pat her face with a cold damp sponge.

GIRLS who compare their own slapped-together looking make-up with the smooth, finished appearance of movie stars often wonder what tricks they use to achieve this perfection.

Ruth Roman, well-known film actress, reveals a few of her dressing-table secrets in these tips on applying cosmetics.

For that "portrait look," she borrows a painter's technique, brushing on her make-up.

To apply rouge in this way, she touches the bristles of a soft brush to a cake of the shade best suited to her complexion and costume, and then gently strokes her cheeks with the brush until the color is well-blended.

In the same way, she applies dry powder, using another soft brush reserved for just that purpose. Care should be taken, she warns, to avoid caking powder in your hair-line.

After applying lipstick, she finishes her make-up job by patting her face all over with a cold, damp sponge. She prepares the sponge for this fresh-up task by dipping it in ice water and then squeezing it well to eliminate extra moisture.

A small bowl of water is standard dressing-table equipment for Ruth. She finds it particularly useful when she is applying eye make-up. A small, slightly-moistened cotton swab is excellent, she finds, for removing smudges of mascara.

To remove mascara smudge, the Warner Bros. starlet finds that a small, slightly moistened cotton swab stick will do nicely.

Homemakers SS Class Feasts at Anson

Homemakers Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met at the Anson Hotel in Anson last Tuesday evening for their Thanksgiving Banquet at 7:30.

The dining room table was decorated with green ivy and red roses. Placecards were used at each member's plate and the Thanksgiving theme was carried throughout the room.

Corsages were presented to: Mrs. Vincie Walton, class teacher; Mrs. Ruth Huchingson, assistant teacher and Mrs. Esther Willingham, entertainer guest.

Opening prayer was led by Mrs. Huchingson, who also presided. After the banquet, a devotional was given by Mrs. Clyde Grice.

Mrs. Estheer Willingham, guest, was presented by Mrs. Walton. Mrs. Willingham read poetry entitled, "Kitchen Prayer," "The Wedding," "In Life" and others.

Program was closed with a prayer by Mrs. A. R. Posey.

Members present included: Mmes. Ben Parker, Weldon Carter, Charlie Abbott, Kelly Scott, Jewel Hargrove, Clyde Alexander, Vincie Walton, Ruth Huchingson, R. L. Kite, Eloise Durkee, Earnest Lee, W. W. Fletcher. Associate members were: Mmes. A. R. Posey, Tom Vaughn, Mamie

Camp Fire Girls Meet At Lonnie Kidd Home

Camp Fire Girls met last Wednesday at 4:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Lonnie Kidd in regular session.

Program included the cooking of hot biscuits, cookies and toast with white sauce, making of vegetable salad. All was under the direction of Billy June Balch, of the Lone Star Gas Company.

Food was served to the girls with drinks furnished by Mrs. Clifford Stuard.

Those present were: Gwendolyn Brown, Lupi Mendoza, Jean Kidd, Joy Faye Hames, Reatha Sanders, Renee Moore, Annie Joyce Hines, Ida Carter, Janis Stinnett, Sara Kay Fomby, Sandra Carter, Mrs. Jack Hames, Mrs. Ned Moore and Mrs. Kidd.

Here's a coed who's already educated in the ways of both fashion and thrift. She made this charming campus outfit from three cotton feed bags. Using the plaid cotton fabric from the feed bags for the skirt, she dyed a plain white bag in a solid shade to match. With her smile and her fashion know-how, this pretty freshman is destined to be a campus queen.

Texas Venture

In Education • 1876-1951
Our first state college—Texas A. and M. is now in its seventy-fifth year

Lawrence Sullivan Ross, one of the most colorful figures in early Texas, did much to establish the A. and M. College of Texas as a ranking educational institution, and put it on the way to the position it holds today. "Little Sul," as he was affectionately known to Texans of the 50s, had made his reputation as an Indian fighter, Texas Ranger, soldier, statesman, before he came to the presidency of A. and M. Among his more noted exploits had been the recapture of Cynthia Ann Parker, his rise in the Confederate Army from private to General in four years and his effective term as Governor of the state. In the eight years from his inauguration in 1890 to his death, he enhanced the popularity and the stature of the college tremendously. The Sul Ross statue in the center of the campus is today a college shrine, while the Ross Volunteers, eldest student honor organization in the state, serve as a constant reminder of his place in the story of Texas A. and M. ficating. Minister Rawlings was assisted by Harold Bonner.

Burial was in Hamlin East Cemetery under direction of Barrow Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Howard, Horace and Milton Crow, Jeff Jones, Parnell Anderson and Marvin Massey, all nephews of Mr. Chism.

Out of town relatives attending were Mrs. Kate Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chism, Mrs. George Sullivan and son, Berry, of Woodson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Chism, Sebastopol, Calif.; Mrs. Rice Robbins, Sonoma, Calif.; Horace Crow, of Austin, and Sergeant Howard Crow, Carswell Air Base, Fort Worth.
